COUNTRY NEWS.

ſter, July 14. Yeſterday ſe'nnight, a melan- ccident happened at Stratford, 6 Miles from viz. A Boy about 11 Years old, being placed in a Corn Field with a Clapper to frighten Birds from deſtroying the Wheat, and a Girl about 18 Years old, with a loaded Gun for the ſame Purpoſe, the Girl in a jeſting way, preſented the Piece at the Boy, and ſaid ſhe would ſhoot him, who in Return, attempted to ſtrike her with his Clapper, and hitting the Trigger, the Gun went off, and ſhot him into the Body, in ſo miſerable a Manner, that his Bowels guſhed out, notwithſtanding which, he linger'd till the next Day, and then expired.

Laſt Week a Fellow in the ſame Neighbourhood, being diſappointed in a Love Affair, hang'd himſelf with his Garters upon a Tree, and being ſeen by a Perſon at a ſmall Diſtance, he climb'd the Tree and cut him down, to whom the Fellow relating the Cauſe of his committing this raſh Act, he fetch'd a Whip, and lac'd him very ſmartly, till his Senſes coming into good Order, he begged that he might not receive any further Diſcipline of that Sort, and that for the future he would behave in a Manner no way deſerving the Laſh.

On Tueſday Evening laſt died Mr. John Proctor, after a tedious Indiſpoſition of the Stone, one of the Collectors of the Poor-Rate in this Town.

On Monday laſt, William Bloys, was apprehended at a Publick Houſe in this Town, on a Charge of ſtealing a Horſe at Woodbridge in Suffolk, which Fact he confeſſed when examined before a Magiſtrate, and was committed to Ipſwich Gaol, in order to take his Trial for the ſame at the enſuing Aſſizes for the County of Suffolk.

On Wedneſday laſt Richard Strutt, of Halſtead, was alſo apprehended in this Town, on a ſtrong Suſpicion of ſtealing a Mare ſome Days ſince at Burntwood, the Property of Mr. Attridge.

On Monday laſt the Guardians of the Poor in this Town, choſe their Officers for the enſuing Year, when Mr. Mayhew, Attorney, was re-choſen Governor, Mr. Whaley, Merchant, Deputy-Governor, and Mr. Wall, Bay-Maker, Treaſurer.

Norwich, July 15. Laſt Tueſday died Thomas Newton, Eſq; Alderman of Eaſt Wymer Ward, who was Sheriff in the Year 1716, and Mayor in 1722: And Yeſterday came on the Election of an Alderman in his Room: The Candidates were Mr. Simeon Waller, late Sheriff of this City, and Mr. Wigg. The Election was carry'd on with ſome Warmth, the Tories exerting their utmoſt Efforts: But on caſting up the Polls, the Numbers ſtood thus:

Mr. Waller 355
Mr. Wigg — 320

Odds 35

This ſeems a compleat Victory for many Years: And in Half an Hour after the Polls were over, the City was as quiet as if no Election had been, which ſhews the Advantage of chooſing thoſe Men in the true Intereſt of his Majeſty and our preſent happy Eſtabliſhment.

At a Meeting of his Majeſty's Juſtices of the Peace for this City, Six Perſons were convicted on the 200 l. Penalty for ſelling Run Tea, and one acquitted; and Two were convicted on the 100 l. Penalty for ſelling Spirituous Liquors without Licenſe, and Three ordered to Bridewell on the Clauſe againſt Hawking Spirituous Liquors, they neglecting to pay the Penalty of Ten Pounds.

The following is taken from the Briſtol News Paper.

Briſtol, July 15. Laſt Tueſday the Lively Man of War, a 20 Gun Ship, which had been impreſſing Men coming up the Channel, came to an Anchor in King Road, and immediately her Boats put off to viſit the Ships and Trows, from whom they carried off all they could meet with fit for Service. They came alſo up the narrow Part of the River as far as Pill; which ſo ſcared ſome of the Trowmen, that thoſe who were near the Water's Edge, jump'd overboard and got clear off; tho' ſeveral Diſcharges of Fire Arms (as we hear) were ſent after them to make them bring to, but in Vain. The Right Worſhipful the Mayor, upon Information of this ſudden Impreſs, and carrying off all that came in their Way, even not ſparing the Trowmen or Market Boats, diſpatch'd an Officer with a Meſſage to the Commander, who returning a regardleſs Anſwer, his Worſhip did thereupon ſend an Expreſs on Wedneſday to London, not only complaining of the Captain's Non-complaiſance, but to procure Protections for the Trowmen and Market-Boats, that no further Obſtruction might be given to the Navigation at this important Time.

By a Packet from our Correſpondent at Virginia, we have a Confirmation of the great Preparation of the Spaniards at the Havanna, in order to ſurprize Georgia and Carolina, and that it was alſo certain they were to be ſupplied with Ships and Proviſions by the French, who had got exported from Cork, near 70,000 Barrels of Beef, for the ſaid Expedition. We alſo learn from our Correſpondent, that ſince the Arrival of their new Governor, it had been whiſper'd about at St. Jago, that a Deſign was on Foot (before the Havanna Expedition was countermanded) to invade Jamaica.

Exon, July 14. The Rev. Mr. Tasket is preſented by Sir Henry Northcote, Bart. to the Rectory of Iddeſleigh in the County of Devon, worth 300 l. per Ann. On Sunday laſt he was inducted into, and on Tueſday, being the General Quarter Seſſions of the Peace for the ſaid County, he qualified himſelf for the ſaid Living.

Wedneſday was caught by ſome Fiſhermen on the Back of the Warren, a very ſurprizing Fiſh, call'd a Mermon: When taken it made a hideous Noiſe, and 'twas with ſome Difficulty they killed it.

About ſeven Months ago, near the ſame Place, was taken a Fiſh of the ſame Kind (beautifully delineated by Mr. Bradley) which they called a Mermaid; but the Difference in the Species is too obvious to admit of any Diſpute. The ſame will ſoon be exhibited to View in this City.
